Breaking Down Barriers

November 11, 2021

HDYO has more information about HD available for young people, parents and professionals on our site:

There are many stigmas and gaps in the education surrounding HD. From understanding the clinical trial processes to going behind the scenes to check out a lab doing clinical research, this series addresses many areas of importance to the community. We are going to also premiere other casual conversations around social stigmas on our different social media channels. For a complete list of videos, visit our YouTube channel
